Editorial Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 18, 1905.

As promised, I wandered into the Treasury this morning and found that, notwithstanding the enormous salaries paid to some of the sinecures of the big insurance companies, and of the subscriptions made by a Democratic President of one of them to the Republican National Committee, there was still quite a bunch of money in Uncle Sam's vaults. In fact, it was lying around in chunks of millions, and while I stood in the Paying Teller's "cage," where CRIT PEARCE, an old Maysville boy, has charge, he handed out over half a million in crisp new notes, ranging in denomination from $1 to $1,000. He seemed to "open up" to every fellow who appeared, and in response sometimes to a mere slip of paper with a column of figures and a few blue-penciled crow-tracks on it—as in the case of one chap who shoved in a slip of this character and carried away over $80,000 in a grip that he'd brought along. Mr. PEARCE tells me that he pays out millions daily, sometimes running as high as $7,000,000—for all of which responsibility and capability he draws the princely sum of $2,500 annually!

Leaving the paying-out section of the big shop, I drew up at the pulling-in division, and had a pleasant chat with another Kentuckian, the Hon. JOHN W. YERKES, whose business as Commissioner of Internal Revenue is to furnish a few hundred millions a year for Mr. PEARCE to hand out. When Mr. YERKES learned that I was not seeking his indorsement for an office, he came near falling in a faint, and had he not known so well to the contrary, would have doubted that I was from Kentucky.

In the big Postoffice Building down on the Avenue I found the Hon. JOHN J. McCARDY, an ex-member of the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry. He is now Auditor for the Postoffice Department—a most capable man for a most important place. It is his wish to be at the Reunion in Maysville on the 27th inst.; and the next time CHARLIE DEGMAN sends a mess of Mason county bananas, will he please pack them in a handled basket!

As I am writing, I am flanked on the right by a small hunk of the "yellow peril." Beginning at the Eastern edge and working toward the West, he is slathering a sheet of paper with hieroglyphics that would give a Maysville stenographer the jimjams; but he can talk as good United States as half the schoolteachers of Mason county, and has just had to tell a well-dressed 'Melican man what day of the month it is! He is now wrestling with the third page of the production—which for aught I know may be a novelette telling why KURO-PATKIN didn't dictate terms of peace from Tokio.

I go tomorrow to Baltimore, and may find time between oysters for another letter.

Thomas A. Day

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Do you want to buy anything or sell anything? See John Duley. He will help you.

Mrs. Margaret Haddon, widow of J. M. Haddon, born near Aberdeen August 5th, 1820, died this week at her home at Manchester.

Mrs. J. W. Clinger received word yesterday morning of the death of her aunt, Mrs. L. P. Primmer, at her home at Ewing.

Mrs. Primmer was 69 years of age and her girlhood days were spent in this city. Surviving are her husband, two sisters—Mrs. Thomas Wormald of Dayton and Mrs. McDonald Keeney of Rondo, W. Va.—and one brother, M. C. Alexander of Winchester, Ind.

Mrs. Clinger will leave this afternoon to attend the funeral, which will occur tomorrow morning.

FIRST EMANCIPATOR

One Item of the Will of the Late John Ficklin

John Ficklin, grandfather of Robert and Heratlo Ficklin of this city, was probably the first emancipator of slaves in Kentucky.

One item in a will dated April 25th, 1803, reads:

'My will and desire is that all my Negroes, whatever, shall be freed from their state of slavery at the several periods hereafter mentioned, to wit: Syrus, a Negro man, on the 10th day of May, 1805; Gerard and Ben, two Negro boys, on the 15th day of March, 1809; Edward, a Negro boy, on the 15th day of August, 1811; Winney, a Negro girl, and Mina, a Negro girl, each to be freed and emancipated on the 27th day of March, 1811; Bob, a Negro boy, on the 21st day of July, 1817.

Lastly, I constitute my trusty friends, William Duff and George Morton, also my loving wife, Eliza Ficklin, Executors and Executrix of this, my last will and testament.'

Do you want to buy a desirable home in Aberdeen? See John Duley about the Mineral Well House.

The gage marks 10.3 and falling. The packet season is again closed on the upper Ohio.

Rains have caused a slight rise at Pittsburgh, but it will not materially affect navigation.

The steamboat Bosnia from Hamburg, just landed at New Orleans, brought 15 bells, the chimes for St. John's Episcopal Cathedral at Denver, Col. The largest of them is more than seven feet high and weighs 9,700 pounds. The total weight is about 100,000 pounds.

All of the boats which passed down on the rise out of Pittsburgh, with the exception of three, have gone back to the mines with empties. The Pittsburgh fleet will go as far as possible, while the Kanawha fleet will be able to get into the mouth of the river and behind the lock and dams of that stream with their tows for reloading.

The necessity of laying before the Government the need for ice piers in Cincinnati, which has been under consideration by the Chamber of Commerce, has culminated in President H. Lee Early appointing a committee of ten to take up the matter and get it properly before the Navy Department, which exercises jurisdiction over the inland rivers. Captain Oscar P. Barrett is a member of the Committee.

The Cincinnati, Pomeroy and Charleston Packet Company has rearranged its schedule of boats of its line. The new schedule is as follows: The Tacoma, leaving Monday and Thursday, under command of Captain J. P. Hughes; Greenland, leaving every Tuesday and Friday, under command of Mrs. Captain M. B. Green, and the Greenwood, leaving every Wednesday and Friday, under command of Captain T. Bennett. These boats will run in this order until further notice.

WILL YOU HELP?

A Worthy Young Lad Wants to Buy an Artificial Limb

Master John D. Beecraft, a sprightly lad of Aberdeen, lost his right leg by bloodpoison some time ago, and is now trying to secure enough money to buy an artificial one.

He is a manly little fellow, worthy of assistance, and his appeal should meet hearty response. A trifle from each will accomplish the result.

Donations may be left at The Ledger Office, and all sums, however small, will be gratefully accepted.

If plenty of material all along the roads, hands to work four days out of a year and 25 cents on the $100 don't keep roads in proper repair the sooner we put the tollgates on the better.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TIME IS THE TEST

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon find out when misrepresentations are made, and merits alone will stand the test of time.

Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

W. H. Paul, carpenter by trade, living at 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says: "I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as I did when I first used them in 1899. I got a box and used it for a pain in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys which had given me much trouble for two years or more. This remedy acted promptly and I was soon cured. I did not notice any of the difficulties until some four years later, or about a year ago. I again procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore and all symptoms of the trouble were quickly and thoroughly removed. Since then I have not noticed any signs of trouble of any kind arising from my back or kidneys. I most cheerfully re-indorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are certainly worthy of recommendation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agent for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
